Art. 4 - Requested repertoire (on-site stage)

1. Contestants admitted to participate in both categories for the on – site stage, must present 5 arias of their choice, contestants can include arias from the Opera “Pagliacci”. All arias must be presented in their original language.

2. In the on-site selection phase (October 10 - 13 2022) the competitor will perform one Aria of their choice from the five arias selected. Competitors participating in both categories will still perform only one Aria. The Commission will have the right to request the execution of a second Aria among the five arias selected by the participant.
3. In the Semifinal phase (October 14 - 15 2022) the competitor will perform, with the decision of the Commission:
 - a) for the VOCI EMERGENTI category, one or more Arias among those selected by the candidate;
 - b) for the RUOLI D’OPERA category, a piece from the competing opera among Arias, Duets, Terzets or other ensembles, even with other competitors. The opera must be performed without cuts.
4. At the outcome of the Semi-final phase, the Jury has the right to decree the winners of the “Ruoli d’opera” category. If so, the winning competitors have the obligation, under penalty of loss of the prize and disqualification, to be at disposal for a possible performance the following day, during the finale, to sing a solo aria or in ensemble pieces, unless the competitor has been admitted to the final stage for the “Voci Emergenti” category.
5. For the final test the decision on the arias to be performed will be up to the Commission, always within the repertoire proposed by the competitor.
6. The competitors, during each single test, can be heard several times, at the request of the Commission.
7. The Commission will have the right to interrupt the test at any time.
8. At the end of the finale, the winners will be announced.

Art. 5 - Accompanying pianists

1. Competitors will be able to use the official accompanying pianists of the event. However, competitors are free to provide an accompanying pianist of their choice, but all charges for this service will need to be covered by the competitor. It is mandatory to notify this at the time of registration.
2. If provisions relating to COVID 19 do not allow competitors to use their own pianists, the Artistic Direction of the Competition will provide an accompanying pianist for all competitors, at no additional cost.

Art. 6 - On-Site selection

1. The initial gathering of all participants is in Viterbo on the day and at the chosen place that will be communicated by email.
2. For the semifinal phase, the order of the candidates to be followed will be determined by the letter that will be drawn randomly or by extemporaneous agreement; then the alphabetical order to follow will be determined. The order of exhibition for the finale will be determined by the jury.
3. The preliminary rounds will begin on Monday October 10th 2022 starting at the communicated time and will last throughout the whole day.
4. Competitors will access the next phase of the competition after obtaining a suitable judgment.
5. The judgments of suitability in the preliminary and semi-final tests will be decided by a majority vote of the jury.
6. The final is scheduled for Sunday October 16th 2020 at 5:00pm, during a concert opened to the public.

Art. 7 - Selection Boards

1. The jury will consist of eminent personalities from the musical artistic sector, including some representatives of the theaters involved.
